

Free Behavior Supports

BEHAVIOR SERVICES

- Functional Behavior Assessments
- Technical Assistance
- Consultations
- Training by Behavior Analysts

ABOUT US

The Keiser University Multidisciplinary Center (KUMDC) is one of six regional Florida Diagnostic and Learning Resources System (FDLRS) Multidisciplinary Centers providing a range of services including screenings, assessments for children and youth at risk for or who have been identified as having complex medical, educational, emotional, or behavioral problems and other risk factors for poor educational/academic outcomes. KUMDC also provides mentoring, consultations, case conferences, technical assistance, and training.

CONTACT US

Malena Zamora, Behavior Analyst
(954) 706-6838
malena.zamora@keiseruniversity.edu